As one of the founders of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches, Dr. Abercrombie was a champion of the Congregational Way. A minister, teacher, leader, poet, author, and inventor, his life was filled with the love of learning and a passion for spiritual growth. Dr. Abercrombie's influence on generations of children and adults throughout the country is still felt today. A memorial service was held on July 26th in Pensacola, Florida where Charlotte, his wife of 71 years, his four children - Lois, Lucia, Paul and David - along with his four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and many friends gave tribute to this tremendous influence. Rev. Dr. Thomas Richard, Executive Secretary of the NACCC, was present at the service to honor Dr. Abercrombie's legacy of devotion to the Congregational Way.
